ALAN TRAMMELL

RESTORING THE ROAR

REACHING TO THE PAST

Alan Trammell's first introduction to Detroit Tigers fans came on September 9, 1977 as a skinny, 19-year-old shortstop when he rapped a single in his first major league at-bat off of Boston righthander Reggie Cleveland. His next introduction took place on October 9, 2002, when Tigers President and General Manager David Dombrowski introduced Trammell as the 35th manager in club history. While more than 25 years have passed since Trammell was first introduced to the fans of Detroit, his enthusiasm remains steadfast and his work ethic unparalleled.

Alan Trammell will wear his familiar number three as he guides the Tigers during the 2003 season.

CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

Trammell's single off of Reggie Cleveland on that innocent September evening rang the opening bell on an impressive career that would carry Alan Trammell and the Detroit Tigers to the pinnacle of major league baseball. Trammell went on to collect more than 2,300 hits in his career with 185 home runs and more than 1,000 RBI. He played in six All-Star games, won four Gold Gloves, three Silver Slugger Awards and was awarded the World Series Most Valuable Player Award after he hit .450 (9x20) with two home runs and six RBI in the Tigers win over San Diego in 1984. When he retired following the 1996 season, Trammell had completed 20 seasons with the Tigers, more than any other player with the exception of fellow Tigers greats Ty Cobb and Al Kaline. Alan Trammell is truly a Tiger who has earned his stripes.

RESTORING THE ROAR

Trammell made it clear from the moment he was introduced as manager that he understands the task at hand and that he is committed to accomplishing that task. "I know in my heart that there is a lot of work to be done here," Trammell said at the press conference. "But I'm willing to do it because I want to get some respect back for this franchise. In fact, that's the number one reason I came back."

Trammell had spent some time away from the Tigers for a few years, but he knew it was time to come back and he is looking forward to the challenge. "I relish the opportunity to prove I can do this," Trammell said in the press conference.

"It's time for me to come back to this organization and get this thing done. And I'm ready to do it."

To accomplish the task of returning the Tigers to their former glory, Trammell has hired some teammates from the past who are well versed in the Tigers tradition as well as a few others who have many years of baseball knowledge.

Former Tigers outfielder Bruce Fields was the first to join the staff as the hitting coach. Fields was followed by Kirk Gibson who will serve as Trammell's bench coach, Lance Parrish, who will work in the bullpen and Juan Samuel who will serve as the third base coach. Long-time pitching coach Bob Cluck will tend to the Tigers young pitching staff while former Tigers infielder Mick Kelleher will handle first base and infield coaching duties.

Trammell and his staff are well suited to help Tigers players both young and old to understand what it means to wear the Tigers uniform and what it takes to win in the big leagues.

WE COME TO PLAY

Trammell and his staff have made a commitment to teaching fundamental baseball and it is that thought, coupled with Comerica Park's fan-friendly atmosphere, that inspired the selection of "We Come to Play" as the theme for the 2003 season.

Trammell has also made it clear that Tigers baseball is more than just wins and losses, it's about effort, professionalism and playing the game the right way. "I'm not going to guarantee you 'x' amount of wins," he said during the October press conference. "What I will guarantee you is the professionalism and the kind of effort on a daily basis. That's how I played. That's how I coached. I know no other way."

OVER 100 SEASONS OF TIGERS BASEBALL

MODEST BEGINNINGS

Joining Boston, Chicago and Cleveland as the only charter members of the American League, the Tigers history actually pre-dates the beginnings of the league itself. Detroit professional baseball dates to 1881 when the city sported a franchise, known alternately as the Wolverines or simply the Detroit, for the first of eight seasons in the National League. One of those clubs, the 1887 entry, won the league's title and went on to take 10-of-15 games from the American Association champion St. Louis club in a cross-country playoff series.

After the National League club moved to Cleveland following the 1888 season, the city was home to various minor league clubs through 1900. It was during this time, however, that the foundation for today's Tigers was laid.

In 1894, baseball legend Ban Johnson, who later would go on to serve 27 years as the American League's first President, awarded Detroit a slot in the reorganized Western League. It was a significant move because just six years later Johnson changed the name to the American League and gained major league status for the circuit in 1901.

It was also in those early years that the Detroit baseball club first became known as the Tigers. Some baseball historians credited Philip J. Reid, editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. The team's manager that same season, George Stallings, also took credit for initiating the nickname because, he said, the black-and-brown stockings he put on his players reminded the fans of "Tiger Stripes."

It appears, however, that the name dates back one year earlier, a year before Stallings became manager, and has been credited to an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press.

"Struther's Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely" read a headline in the paper on April 16, 1895. The same page also listed a series of baseball notes, headed by "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." The name caught on, and the Detroit Tigers were officially christened.

Under Johnson's leadership, the American League in 1901 declared that it would conduct business as a major league. Unlike predecessors such as the Union Association, the fledgling league would not only survive but thrive, and the Detroit Tigers played a major role as the game took on its modern shape.

TIGERS DEBUT, COBB EMERGES

On April 24, 1901, the Tigers prepared to take to the field for their first official American League game. A standing room only crowd was anticipated at Bennett Park, but unpredictable weather postponed the opening by a day.

On that historic afternoon in front of 10,000 fans, the Tigers entered the ninth inning trailing Milwaukee, 13-4. A series of hits and miscues followed, moving the score to 13-12 with two runners on. With two out, Tiger Frank "Pop" Dillon faced reliever Bert Husting, and the lefthanded hitter rapped a two-run double to complete a 14-13 comeback win.

The 1905 season was a remarkable one for the organization in that it marked the first in a Detroit uniform for Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the most famous Tiger of all. Acquired in exchange for pitcher Eddie Cicotte and $700 from Augusta of the Sally League (plus an additional $50 for "immediate delivery"), Cobb played the first of his 3,033 major league games on August 30, 1905. He would remain with the Tigers for 22 years, and when he retired in 1928, he had collected more records than any player in major league history.

The 1907 season saw the emergence of two individuals, neither of them players, who would both play significant roles in turning the fortunes of the young Tigers. One was Frank Navin, who began as a bookkeeper with the franchise in 1902 before acquiring a full half interest ownership in the club and becoming team president. After Ban Johnson's retirement in 1927, Navin came to be regarded by many as the most powerful man in the American League.

The other was Hughie Jennings, a keen judge of talent who would lead the club to three consecutive league championships as one of the most colorful managers in major league history.

ONE STEP AWAY

That same 1907 season, the Tigers won their first pennant, taking the American League by one and one-half games with a mark of 92-58. A disappointing loss to the Cubs in the World Series followed.

The next two years the Tigers repeated their regular-season successes, winning league titles both seasons. Like 1907, however, the club was defeated by Chicago and Pittsburgh, respectively, in the Fall Classic.

It would be years before the Tigers would have an opportunity to erase the memories of their post-season struggles in World Series play. The period from 1910-34, however, is not lacking of historical interest as it featured some remarkably talented teams and individuals that came up just a little shy of taking the next step.

In 1911, Cobb finished with a personal-best batting average of .420, finishing just short of the all-time American League single-season record of .422 set by Nap Lajoie in 1901. In 1912, the club moved into its new ballpark, named after Frank Navin, but the campaign was marked by a one-game players' strike in retaliation for a suspension levied on Cobb for taking a punch at a fan in New York. The May 18 strike forced the Tigers to put together a team of sandlot players for one game, a 24-2 loss at Philadelphia.

Three seasons later in 1915, Jennings and his club posted a regular-season record of 100-54, yet the skipper remembered the campaign as "the biggest disappointment" of his career after Babe Ruth's Red Sox claimed the pennant with 101 wins. The following season marked the beginning of the career of first baseman Harry Heilmann, a future Hall-of-Famer who would spend 15 years in Detroit, while 1917 saw the end of 15 seasons in the Tiger outfield for fellow Cooperstown inductee Sam Crawford.

By 1920, the Tigers had plunged to seventh place, Jennings was released and the managerial position fell into the hands of Cobb. The highlight of Cobb's tenure was 1924, the same season that Hall-of-Famer Charlie Gehringer first wore the Tiger uniform, when the club remained in the race until the season's final week with a record of 86-68.

After a sixth-place finish in 1926, Cobb drew his release from Detroit and concluded his career with two more seasons in Philadelphia and an all-time major league record .367 career batting average.

From 1927 through 1932, the club placed no higher than fourth in the league standings. Highlights of the era included the arrival of Hank Greenberg, who played 12 of his 13 seasons in Detroit and found his way to the Hall of Fame in 1956.

After five seasons with Bucky Harris at the helm, Navin attempted to hire Babe Ruth as manager in 1934. Unable to land him, Navin turned to Mickey Cochrane, purchased from Philadelphia for $100,000. With Cochrane as catcher/manager, the Tigers soared to a 101-53 record in 1934 for the first of two consecutive league pennants. Schoolboy Rowe set a record with 16 consecutive pitching wins, but in the World Series the Tigers once again failed to capture the post-season magic, dropping a seven-game decision to Frankie Frisch's St. Louis Cardinals in a series that featured Commissioner Landis removing St. Louis outfielder Ducky Medwick from Game 7 for his own safety as Detroit fans pelted the field with debris.

BREAKING THROUGH IN "PRINCE"-LY FASHION

The following season, the long-awaited title dreams came true for Tiger fans and players. After winning the American League by three games, Detroit took six games to mow down the Chicago Cubs in the 1935 World Series, with Cochrane making a daring dash from second in the ninth inning of Game Six to score the winning run on a single by Goose Goslin. For their accomplishments, each player was awarded a share of $6,544.

On November 13, 1935, Frank Navin was stricken by a heart ailment and died at the age of 64. Walter Briggs Sr., already half-owner of the club, purchased the remainder of the team and became president.

In 1940 under manager Del Baker, Detroit earned its sixth pennant with a 90-64 mark and faced Cincinnati in the Fall Classic. A 21-game winner in the regular season, righthander Bobo Newsom pitched the Tigers to wins in two games of the Series but fell in Game Seven as the Reds won the title.

A strange end to the 1945 season marked the Tigers' successful surge to their eventual second World Series title. With little hope of making it to the post-season, the Washington Senators scheduled their season to close a week early to make their park available for pro football. The Senators, however, played inspired baseball all the way but were forced to sit and watch during the season's final week as the Tigers nosed them out of a pennant. In the ensuing World Series, the Tigers, managed by Steve O'Neill, knocked off the Cubs in seven games, with Hall-of-Famer "Prince Hal" Newhouser winning two times.

After a pair of second-place finishes in 1946 and '47 and the acquisition of Hall-of-Famer George Kell, the Tigers watched as a fresh influx of talent from the minors matured and nearly captured the 1950 pennant, falling just three games short after leading the pack for 119 days and finishing with a 95-59 record.

A NEW ERA IN TIGERTOWN

The 1950s were highlighted by the emergence of young outfielder Al Kaline who, with a .340 batting average in 1955, became the youngest player in league history to win a batting title.

The Tiger front office was also seeing sweeping change after the death of Briggs Sr. in 1952. After a four-year presidency by his son, Walter Briggs Jr., the Briggs stock was sold to a syndicate of 11 radio/television executives led by John Fetzer, Fred Knorr and Kenyon Brown. In 1960, Fetzer purchased the entire team and became entrenched as club president.

After finishing just one game out of first place in 1967, the Tigers were poised and loaded with talent entering the 1968 campaign. Under manager Mayo Smith, the club took the lead on May 10 and never relinquished it, finishing 12 games ahead of second-place Baltimore. Denny McLain was the hero of the campaign with a 31-6 record, becoming the first pitcher since Lefty Grove in 1934 (and remaining the last currently) to win 30 or more in a season. His efforts earned McLain unanimous acclaim as MVP and Cy Young winner in the league.

In a tight World Series, Mickey Lolich pitched the club to three wins, the final win coming on just two days rest as the Tigers captured the crown.

With divisional play starting in 1969, the Tigers next visited the post-season by winning the American League East in 1972 under Billy Martin with a 92-70 mark. The club was unable to capture the pennant, however, as the Oakland A's won the best-of-five series in five games.

The late 1970s featured the first of an American League record 1,918 appearances together by Tiger middle infielders Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker.

The 1979 season saw another significant change in leadership when on June 14, Sparky Anderson took over the club's managerial reigns. For the next 16 seasons, Anderson would lead the Tigers from the dugout, claiming two division titles and a World Championship along the way.

TEAM OF THE '80s

After a second-place finish in 1983, success was expected for a talented Tiger club the following season. With Jack Morris tossing his first no-hitter on April 7 of 1984, the club vaulted into the division lead by winning its first nine games and going 35-5 through May 24, the best 40-game start in major league history. The Tigers went on to a 104-58 mark, 15 games in front of the pack, and continued by sweeping the Royals in the Championship Series. After defeating the Padres, four-games-to-one, in the World Series, the Tigers became the first major league team since the 1955 Dodgers to hold first place wire-to-wire and finish by winning the championship. In addition, a club-record 2,704,794 fans passed through the turnstiles.

The Tigers returned to glory in 1987 in dramatic fashion. The club struggled to an 11-19 start but closed strong and looked ready to make a move after first-place Toronto lost four straight entering the final weekend of play. Trailing the Blue Jays by just one game with a three-game set in Motown against Toronto to close the regular season, the Tigers took the first two. With a one-game lead, Detroit's Frank Tanana out-duelled the Jays' Jimmy Key on Sunday as Larry Herndon's solo homer proved the only scoring in a 1-0 triumph. After the dramatic ending to the regular season, Detroit bowed out of the playoffs to Minnesota, losing a best-of-seven series in five contests.

REBUILDING A PROUD FRANCHISE

The 1992 season included the most recent change in ownership for the team as Mike Ilitch purchased sole interest in the team from Tom Monaghan, and other structural changes were not far down the road.

Following many years of planning and hard work, the Tigers said goodbye to Tiger Stadium following the 1999 season and opened Comerica Park for the 2000 season. A sellout crowd braved a blustery and damp afternoon on April 11, 2000 to see the Tigers defeat the Seattle Mariners 5-2 in the first game at Comerica Park. Many fans would follow suit during the 2000 season, as the Tigers drew more than 2.5 million fans for the team's highest home attendance since 1984.

The Tigers took another step towards building a winner with the hiring of David Dombrowski as team president and chief executive officer on November 5, 2001. Dombrowski came to the team as one of the most respected and highly regarded executives in baseball and he has already made his mark on the organization with a number of decisions that are geared to restore pride to the Olde English D and return the Tigers to their rightful place among the elite in the American League. On April 8, 2002, Dombrowski took on more responsibility in the Tigers rebuilding effort when he assumed the duties of general manager following the dismissal of Randy Smith.

On October 9, 2002, he hired former Tigers great Alan Trammell as the 35th manager in club history. In the months following his hiring, Trammell assembled his coaching staff and hired former Tigers Kirk Gibson, Lance Parrish, Juan Samuel, Bruce Fields and Mick Kelleher as well as long-time pitching coach Bob Cluck.

COMERICA PARK THE TIGERS HOME

RAISING THE EXPECTATIONS

In April 2000, The Detroit News produced a commemorative section on the Detroit Tigers first game at their new home, Comerica Park. A quote from the headlining story read as follows:

"Comerica Park is expected to make the Detroit Tigers part of baseball's nouveau riche..."

Those who have visited the ballpark agree with the expectations. A carousel. A ferris wheel. A mammoth water feature in center field that can be choreographed to any music. A decade-by-decade pedestrian museum enveloping the main concourse. A game experienced through magnificent sight lines. These are but a few examples of the unique elements that set have given fans an unforgettable experience at Comerica Park.

Groundbreaking for the $300 million project took place on October 29, 1997. More than 60 percent of the financing is private, with the rest contributed from public sources. The result is a combination of a classic design for the seating area with entertainment features that are unique to Comerica Park.

Tigers owner Mike Ilitch played a direct role in designing the facility and brought years of family entertainment experience to the process.

"If the fans feel the pride that this is their park, and a pride of ownership, then we've accomplished what we set out to do," said Ilitch.

AN URBAN VILLAGE

Comerica Park itself is built around the configuration of the playing field. All planning efforts established fan sight lines as the highest priority. The surrounding "outbuildings," however, conform to the property boundaries of Montcalm, Witherell, Adams and Brush Streets.

Comerica Park is rooted at the center of an urban village, a village that includes shops, restaurants, offices, the beautiful neighboring Ford Field and other attractions. Buildings of varying sizes and heights make up this village of outbuildings which houses many of the service facilities surrounding the park. Roughly 70,000 square feet of retail space is included and another 36,000 square feet is dedicated to Tigers offices. The result blends into the surrounding street life of Foxtown.

And with no upper deck outfield seats, no ballpark offers a better view of a downtown skyline than Comerica Park.

THE CONCOURSES

The concourses are among the most generous of any facility. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, with wider concourses in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. The general standard for concourses in existing ballparks is 32 feet in width. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Touring the main concourse, fans are taken through time on a tour of baseball and lifestyle history. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed throughout the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring artifacts from appropriate eras.

THE SCOREBOARD

Comerica Park features a main scoreboard larger than any other facility in existence. The face of the structure, in fact, is equivalent to the size of the face of the Fox Theatre Office Building facing Woodward Avenue (180' wide). The structure includes one video screen (42'x24'), one large black and white matrix board with the line score (64'x34'), and a color matrix board (42'x24').

An old-time, out-of-town scoreboard is at field level within the wall in right-center field, and a pitch information board alerts fans to the speed of each pitch thrown in the game.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans.

Among the many tantalizing food options are the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area behind third base and the Big Cat Court food area behind first base, with a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the food court, a merry-go-round is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Behind the Brushfire Grill stands a baseball-themed ferris wheel. The stunning General Motors fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 11,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. The first five rows of the upper bowl have been designated as club seats, and patrons have access to the Club Lounge. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS

Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for every guest who enters Comerica Park.

THE TIGER CLUB

The Tiger Club, open on a membership basis, features approximately 20,000 square feet of entertaining space. There is seating for 300 overlooking the playing field in right field, a bar for 200, a cigar bar and banquet facility.

GATED ENTRANCES

There are three main gated entrances to Comerica Park, each featuring attractions on a grand scale. Among the features are immense 80-foot high baseball bats framing the gates, tiger sculptures, Pewabic tile accents and a statue honoring Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell.

COMERICA ON BOARD

On December 21, 1998, Detroit-based Comerica Incorporated and the Tigers partnered on a naming rights agreement for the Tigers new home. The announcement came on the eve of Comerica's 150th anniversary of Comerica's service to the Detroit community.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Summit Bank, Limited, Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

TIGERS CARE

One of the most significant responsibilities of the Detroit Tigers organization is its community involvement. Through Tigers Care, the community affairs department of the Detroit Tigers, the club supports needy individuals, groups and institutions, and strives to improve the quality of life for children and the underprivileged by strengthening the social and economic conditions of the community.

Tigers Care coordinates the charitable and community-oriented efforts of Tigers players, wives, coaches, alumni, broadcasters and front office staff. Thousands of individuals and organizations throughout Detroit, the state of Michigan and surrounding areas have been touched by the efforts of Tigers Care.

Tigers Winter Caravan

The Tigers Winter Caravan annually reconnects Tigers baseball with its fan base throughout the State of Michigan and parts of Ohio and Canada. The caravan supports many communities and Michigan-based organizations by linking Detroit Tigers players and members of the front office to charitable and noteworthy causes, raising thousands of dollars in the process. From Detroit, Windsor and Toledo to Kalamazoo and Traverse City, the Winter Caravan reaches Tigers fan of all ages. Whether spending time at a children's hospital, elementary school, fanfest, public autograph session or banquet, the Caravan proves the true magic of Tigers Baseball is connecting Tigers fans with their heroes of past and present - especially during the cold Michigan winter. In 2003, the Caravan visited ten cities in two days and helped charities raise over $50,000.

Tigers Fields of Champions

Tigers Fields of Champions is the field renovation project of the Detroit Tigers. The Tigers are dedicated to providing fun, safe, state-of-the-art baseball and softball fields for youth in communities that lack proper facilities. In 2002, the Tigers began the first such project in a partnership with Detroit Public Schools (DPS). The Tigers and DPS are designing and constructing a facility that will house a regulation-sized baseball field and a regulation-sized fast-pitch softball field. This outstanding facility, which will have major league landscaping and maintenance plans, is the first of many Tigers Fields of Champions to be built or renovated throughout Michigan.

Ambassadors for Education

This important program is the umbrella for the Tigers initiatives in educational and academic support services. Programs include Perfect Attendance, Safety Patrol, Breaking Barriers, Tigers Readers and the Tigers Ticket Incentive Program. The Perfect Attendance Program awards Tigers tickets to Detroit Public middle school students with perfect attendance during a designated time, while the Jackie Robinson Essay, Art and Poetry Contest encourages students to study the history and impact of minorities in baseball. In 2000 the Tigers created an annual scholarship in honor of hometown hero and former Tiger Willie Horton. The scholarship is awarded annually in the amount of $5,000 to a Detroit Northwestern High School student - Horton's alma mater.

Charitable Donations and Ticket Program

Each year, more than 1,000 charitable groups from Detroit and surrounding areas receive memorabilia for fund-raising activities. In addition, the Tigers distribute more than 50,000 complimentary tickets to provide community groups with an opportunity to attend Tigers games.

Willie Horton's Batting for Kids

Entering its 3rd year, this program is a youth baseball clinic and fund-raiser for Don Bosco Hall that promotes development and enrichment of inner-city youth and sports. Local area corporations, small businesses, club organizations and individuals sponsor Little Leaguers to participate in a competition and enjoy a demonstration clinic on the field at Comerica Park, entertainment and food & beverages. Tigers players and coaches judge the competition. A pre-game ceremony recognizes winners and major sponsors.

Player Participation

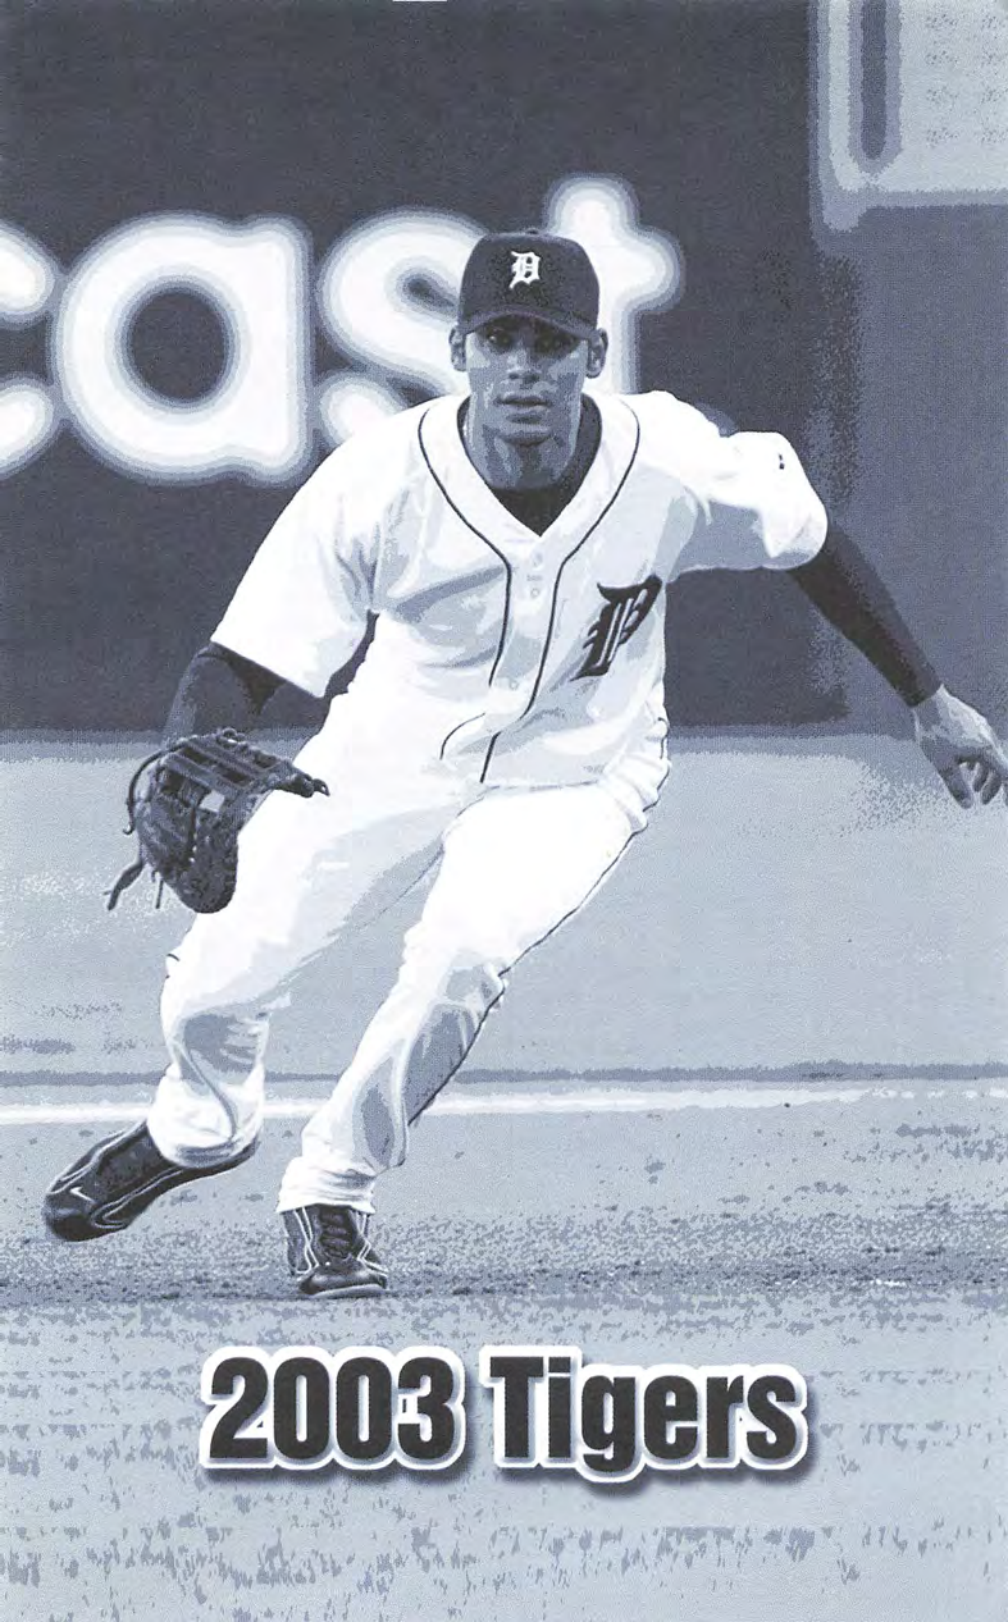

Through Tigers Care, Tigers players and coaches make a commitment to work with a designated charity in the metro Detroit area. The Player Participation program is the cornerstone of the Tigers charitable work. Each year, more than 25 area organizations benefit from the dedication and caring of Tigers players and coaches. The work includes counseling students, visiting youth groups, conducting baseball clinics, visiting hospitals, serving as chairmen or spokesmen, appearing in public service announcements and much more.

Pepsi Pitch Hit and Run Competition (MLB)

Major League Baseball organizes this event, designed to showcase youngsters' skills in throwing, batting and base running. The Tigers host the Sectional event of this nation-wide competition for youth ages 7-14. Winners may qualify to compete in the national finals at the All-Star game. Several National Champions have come out of the Detroit competition.

Tigers Care Dreams Come True

Throughout the season, Tigers Care grants the wishes of Tigers fans of all ages with special needs or serious illnesses. These individuals and groups are invited to view batting practice on the field and meet Tigers players and coaches.

McLain Wins 31 Games in 1968

Tigers righthander Denny McLain led Detroit to the 1968 World Championship with a season that recalled the era of Grove and Dean and has not been duplicated since. That year, McLain won an amazing 31 games and was named both American League MVP and Cy Young Award-winner.

En route to becoming baseball's first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934 and the first in the AL since Lefty Grove in '31, the brash McLain won nine games by June 9, including a 10-inning complete-game victory on May 20 at Minnesota. But it was the following month which put him on pace to make history. McLain reeled off a nine-game winning streak, and by July 16 he had a stunning record of 18-2 and was well on his way to the magic number of 30.

McLain earned his 30th victory on September 14 with a 5-4 complete-game win over Oakland, and three days later the Tigers clinched the American League pennant. He ended the year with a record of 31-6 and a 1.96 ERA, completed 28-of-41 starts and struck out 280 hitters in 336 innings.

Sparky's Legacy Honored at Cooperstown

On June 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. On the all-time victory list, Anderson's 2,194 total wins ranks third behind only Hall of Famers John McGraw and Connie Mack. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage, which ranks 23rd all-time.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is also the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises, to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues, and manage teams from both leagues to a World Series title.

Mueller Goes 19-Plus in No-Decision

Les Mueller must have had a tired arm after July 21, 1945, the day the Tigers played the longest game in club history. Detroit played the Philadelphia Athletics to a 24-inning, 1-1 tie in a game which was called because of darkness. Mueller, who was in the midst of his only full season in the major leagues, pitched the first 19.2 innings of the ballgame and surrendered the Athletics' only run in the fourth inning. Detroit scored its lone run in the seventh inning of the game which still stands as the longest tie in American League history. That season, Mueller ended up with a 6-8 record and went the distance six times.

Player/Managers Meet for Final Time

The 1934 World Series in which the Tigers played the Cardinals was the final World Series in which both opposing managers were also players. That year, second baseman/ manager Frankie Frisch's Cardinals defeated catcher/manager Mickey Cochrane's Tigers four games to three. Cochrane had already been awarded with the MVP trophy for the '34 regular season, making him and former Cleveland skipper and shortstop Lou Boudreau (1948) the only American League player/managers ever to be named league MVP.

Ruth, Rowe Miss Chances to Manage Tigers

When Tigers owner Frank Navin was looking for a manager before the 1934 season, Babe Ruth was at the top of his list. However, Ruth, after being offered the job, postponed his decision to take a trip to Honolulu, Hawaii. Impatient for Ruth's answer, Navin dumped the home run king and hired Mickey Cochrane instead. Cochrane, of course, went on to be named league MVP as the club's catcher in 1934 and took the Tigers to their first World Series in 25 years.

Former Tiger Lynwood Thomas "Schoolboy" Rowe also had an opportunity to manage the Tigers in 1952 when Walter "Spike" Briggs, Jr., then President of the Tigers, decided to change skippers in mid-season. He first offered the job to former White Sox Hall-of-Famer Ted Lyons who turned it down. Briggs then tried to contact Rowe, but Rowe had gone fishing and could not be reached. Fred Hutchinson, Briggs' third choice, ended up with the position, taking over for Red Rolfe.

Stearnes' Star Shines at Hall of Fame

Norman "Turkey" Stearnes, a standout slugger for the Detroit Stars of the Negro League, earned his spot in baseball history as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000. Stearnes, a gifted outfielder and powerful hitter, played for the Stars from 1923-30 and 1937, and also played with several other Negro League teams. Legendary Negro League player Satchel Paige was quoted as saying that "Turkey Stearnes was one of the greatest hitters we ever had...he was as good as anybody ever played ball."

Following his successful career in baseball, Stearnes and his wife, Nettie, stayed in Detroit. Stearnes could almost always be found at Tigers home games before he passed away on September 4, 1979 at the age of 78. Nettie Stearnes and the Stearnes' family, friends and former teammates were tireless in their efforts to have Turkey's accomplishments rightfully recognized with the sport's highest honor. In 2000, Turkey Stearnes' legacy was finally given its due recognition with his induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

Inside-the-Park Home Runs by Tigers

Since 1912, when Hall-of-Famer Sam Crawford registered the Tigers first inside-the-park home run at month-old Fenway Park in Boston, Detroit players have accounted for 43 such roundtrippers. Crawford is the only Tiger ever to have two in the same season, also in 1912, and the all-time club leader in inside-the-park homers is Lou Whitaker, who had four during his long Tiger career. In 1956, Frank Lary became the only Tiger pitcher to post an inside-the-park homer on Opening Day versus the Athletics. Following is the Tigers all-time list of inside-the-park home runs, 27 of which have been accomplished in Detroit.

First Night Game in Detroit in 1948

Tiger Stadium, then known as Briggs Stadium, hosted its first-ever night game on June 15, 1948, as 54,480 fans watched Hal Newhouser and the Tigers defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 4-1. The eight light towers were turned on at 9:29 p.m., and were comprised of 1,458 incandescent bulbs. The stadium thus became the last in the American League to install a lighting system. The last park in the entire major leagues to install lights was Wrigley Field, home of the Chicago Cubs, which waited until 1988 before it began hosting night games.

In comparison to the artificial light that shone that night at Briggs Stadium, Comerica Park's 16 light standards produce over 1.3 million watts of light, with the five-story outfield structures holding just 75 bulbs each at over 20 inches in diameter.

Halter's Historic Game

On October 1, 2000, Shane Halter became the fourth player in the history of Major League Baseball to play all nine positions in a single game. He accomplished the feat on the last day of the season, in a thrilling 12-11 win versus Minnesota. Halter started at first base before moving to third base in the second inning. In the third inning, Halter moved to right field, played center in the fourth inning and left field in the fifth. In the sixth, Halter moved back to the infield to play shortstop. He moved behind the plate to catch the seventh, and in the eighth he took the mound to pitch. Toeing the rubber as part of playing all nine positions, Halter became the first position player to pitch for the Tigers since 1931 when infielder Mark Koenig hurled four innings in a 8-6 loss to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After walking the only batter he faced, Matt LeCroy, Halter moved from the mound to second base. His feat overshadowed a four-hit performance at the plate. To top it off, Halter also scored the winning run in the ninth inning to cap his historic accomplishment.

Home Run Day, 2002

Major League Baseball games produced an all-time record 62 home runs on July 2, 2002. Included in that total was the 12 homers that the Tigers and Chicago White Sox combined to hit, matching a major league record previously set by the same two teams at Tiger Stadium on May 28, 1995. It was the first time in baseball history that each team hit six home runs in a game. Other notes of interest:

- The Tigers hit their last three home runs in the ninth inning of the 17-9 loss, the last two with two outs.
- The game-time temperature on the muggy summer night at Comiskey Park was 93 degrees.
- The first inning featured four home runs; each of the teams hit two.
- The first three hits and four of the first five by the White Sox were home runs.

Following is a list of all 12 of the home runs hit at Comiskey Park on July 2, 2002:

1. Detroit, Dmitri Young, none on, off Todd Ritchie, 1st inning
2. Detroit, Robert Fick, one on, off Todd Ritchie, 1st inning
3. Chicago, Kenny Lofton, none on, off Adam Bernero, 1st inning

Hitting Streaks by Tigers Rookies

A pair of Tigers rookies, Carlos Pena and Omar Infante, each strung together 12-game hitting streaks in 2002. They became just the ninth and 10th rookies, respectively, to post hitting streaks of 12 games or longer over the last 46 years for the Tigers. Glenn Wilson tops the list with a 19-gamer in 1982. The complete list since 1953 follows:

Player	Streak	Date	Year
Glenn Wilson	19 games	8/13-9/5	1982
Leon Roberts	17 games	4/13-5/16	1975
Harvey Kuenn	15 games	8/29-9/9	1953
Milt Cuyler	15 games	8/30-9/15	1991
Rick Peters	14 games	8/26-9/8 (Gm.1)	1980

Centering on Frustration

Of the 388 home runs hit at Comerica Park in its first three seasons, just 10 have cleared the center field wall. The eight-foot, six-inch center field wall runs from left-center field to the out-of-town scoreboard right below Comerica Park's giant water feature. Of the 10 home runs, four have been hit by a Tigers player. Billy McMillon became the first Tiger to notch the trick in the first inning off Boston's Rolando Arroyo on September 16, 2000. Dean Palmer pulled off the feat twice in 2001, April 29 off Tampa Bay's Albie Lopez and June 9 off Milwaukee's Ben Sheets. Following is a list of those players who managed to hit roundtrippers to center field at Comerica Park:

Player	Team	Pitcher	Date
Richie Sexson	Cleveland	Weaver	May 24, 2000
J. D. Drew	St. Louis	Moehler	June 10, 2000
Jim Thome	Cleveland	Blair	June 18, 2000
Tony Eusebio	Houston	Blair	July 15, 2000
Ben Grieve	Oakland	Nomo	August 18, 2000
Billy McMillon	Detroit	Arroyo (BOS)	September 16, 2000 (Game 1)
Dean Palmer	Detroit	Lopez (TB)	April 29, 2001
Dean Palmer	Detroit	Sheets (MIL)	June 9, 2001
Shane Halter	Detroit	Herges (MON)	June 11, 2002

Thanks A Million, Tigers Fans

The Tigers have drawn over one million fans at home in each of the past 38 seasons, the lone American League team to do so. Only the Cardinals (39 years) and the Dodgers (57 years) have longer streaks. The Dodgers drew over one million fans in their last 13 seasons in Brooklyn, and all 44 years in Los Angeles. In addition, the Tigers topped the one hundred million mark in franchise history in 1994.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

Five Tigers Squads Have Won 100 Games

Five Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season, most recently the 1984 club led by Trammell, Gibson, Whitaker, Morris, Hernandez and the rest. Believe it or not, however, two of the Tigers 100-game winners did not even capture the American League pennant.

Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished two-and-a-half games behind Babe Ruth and the Red Sox. Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) ended the season eight games back of the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk and featuring Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle.

Two of the five clubs, though, did win the World Series. Under Sparky Anderson, the aforementioned '84 Tigers (104-58) set a club record for regular-season wins and went on to defeat the San Diego Padres in the Fall Classic. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way with a seven-game victory over the St. Louis Cardinals for the World Championship.

Finally, the 1934 Tigers (101-53) fell in the middle of those two groups. Managed by Hall-of-Famer Mickey Cochrane, who was also the club's starting catcher and was named AL MVP that season, the Tigers won the pennant but lost the World Series to the Cardinals.

Tigers Triple Crown

Just 10 Tigers have led the club in batting average, home runs and RBI in the same season, led by Harry Heilmann who accomplished the feat six times. Last season, Randall Simon became just the second player in the last 23 years to win the team's Triple Crown. All but four of the players are enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

How They Became Known as "Tigers"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroiters," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

2003 Postseason Facts

The 2002 American League and National League Division Series will feature the winners of each of the three divisions and a wild card team squaring off in best-of-five series. The wild card team will be the second-place team with the best record in each league, and that club will play the division winner with the best record, unless that team is from the same division as the wild card.

Games One, Two and Five (if necessary) of each Division Series will be held at the home field of the team with the better record, unless it is a wild card team. The wild card will never have home-field advantage for the Division or League Championship Series.

The two winners from each Division Series will then advance to the best-of-seven League Championship Series, with the winner of each LCS moving on to the World Series. The team with the better record will host Games One, Two, Six and Seven of the LCS.

The American League representative is scheduled to host Games One, Two, Six and Seven of the 2002 World Series.

TIGERS IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

TY COBB

CF, 1905-26

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1936

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/175

Born: 12/18/1886 in Narrows, GA

Full Name: Tyrus Raymond Cobb

Nickname: "The Georgia Peach"

Died: 7/17/61 in Atlanta, GA

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame...garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owens the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in major league history.
- Major league record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years and single-season major league record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the major league record for career runs scored (2,246) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (295), fourth in doubles (724) and fourth in stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tiger teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400 or better three times (.420, 1911; .409, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in major league history...one of just two players (Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Chalmers Award-winner (AL MVP) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- From 1907-20, won the league batting title in 12 out of 13 seasons.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and from 1907-11, led the league in RBI in four of the five years.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both major leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), en route to leading the Tigers to the last of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive AL pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career as a Tiger, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

MICKEY COCHRANE

C, 1934-37

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1947

Ht./Wt.: 5-10/180

Born: 4/6/03 in Bridgewater, MA

Full Name: Gordon Stanley Cochrane

Nickname: "Black Mike"

Died: 6/28/62 in Lake Forest, IL

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tiger club as player-manager in 1934 and immediately led Detroit to back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 league MVP after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, took the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth in Game 6 to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Tiger Stadium.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beamed in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally pulling through...although he continued as Tiger manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times in his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pask and $100,000 after taking part in three pennant-winners...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named AL MVP in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 major league seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.
- Wore uniform No. 3 while playing for Detroit.

Born: 4/18/1880 in Wahoo, NE

Full Name: Samuel Earl Crawford

Nickname: "Wahoo Sam"

Batted/Threw: L/L

Died: 6/15/68 in Hollywood, CA

Although he spent most of his career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season en route to his career record of 312.

Known for his quiet efficiency, Michigan native Charlie Gehringer was not only the best fielding second baseman of his time, but he also hit for power and average. Born: 1/1/11 in New York, NY

Full Name: Henry Benjamin Greenberg

Nickname: "Hammerin' Hank"

Batted/Threw: R/R

Died: 9/4/86 in Beverly Hills, CA

A fearsome run producer and home run hitter, "Hammerin' Hank" Greenberg made the most of a career interrupted by four years of military service during World War II and another season lost to injury to capture two MVP awards and a pair of World Series titles.

- Rapped a Tiger-record 63 doubles, just four short of the major league mark, in 1934 in his second full season in the majors as the Tigers won their first pennant in 25 years.
- Unanimous selection as AL MVP in 1935 after leading the league with 39 homers and 170 RBI as the Tigers won their first World Series title, defeating the Chicago Cubs.
- Suffered a broken wrist just 12 games into the 1936 season after beginning the campaign batting .348 with 16 RBI.
- Drove in 183 runs the next year, one short of Lou Gehrig's 1931 league record.
- In 1938, chased Babe Ruth's 11-year-old single-season home run record (60) before ending the year with a league-best 58 longballs.
- Won AL MVP honors again in 1940, his last full season before entering the Army, as he batted a career-best .340 and led the league with 41 homers, 150 RBI and 50 doubles...carried Detroit to its sixth AL pennant.
- Returned from a four-year stint in the Army in July of 1945 and drilled a grand slam on the final day of the season to spur the Tigers back to the World Series...batted .304 with two homers and seven RBI to lead Detroit past Chicago for its second World Series title.
- Drove in more than 100 runs a total of seven times in his career and hit better than .300 in each of his first eight seasons, including high marks of .340 in 1940 and .337 in 1937.
- Posted a lifetime slugging percentage of .605, good for sixth-highest in ML history.
- Completed his brilliant career with one final season in Pittsburgh after being sold by the Tigers to the Pirates on January 18, 1947.
- Had his uniform No. 5 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Charlie Gehringer's No. 2 was retired.

At the time of his retirement, Kaline and Ty Cobb were the only Tigers ever to play 20 or more seasons in a Detroit uniform.

Hall of Famer and former Tiger skipper Hughie Jennings (1907-1920) was famous for his distinguished "Eeeyah" yell. Jennings, who managed teams led by Hall of Fame players such as Ty Cobb, Sam Crawford and Harry Heilmann, began to use this act after being ejected from a game and fined for using a policeman's whistle while coaching at third base.

In 1993, Mickey Tettleton became the first batter in Tiger history to draw 100 or more walks in three consecutive seasons. On six other occasions, Tigers have done it in back-to-back seasons, a distinction first achieved by Donie Bush in 1914-15. Rudy York's Awesome August

The Tigers Rudy York had one of the best months in baseball history back in August of 1937. In 1998, Sammy Sosa's terrific tear in June brought back memories of York's historic month. Sosa set a major league record by clubbing 20 homers in June of 1998, breaking York's mark of 18 from August of '37. Sosa actually broke the record at Tiger Stadium on June 25, 1998 with a homer off of Brian Moehler.

Hitting home runs was not the only thing that York did in prolific fashion that month, however. He also compiled a .363 batting average (41x113) in 30 games during the month, and his 18 homers and 50 RBI for the month equaled roughly half of his total for the entire season (35 homers and 103 RBI).

York actually hit 12 longballs in his last 14 games in August and drove in 29 runs during that stretch. He also scored 27 runs, produced five doubles and two triples and totaled 104 total bases. York's slugging percentage in April of 1937 was an astounding .920.

The Year of Motown Champs, 1935

In 1935, catcher/manager Mickey Cochrane led the Detroit Tigers to their first-ever World Series title as they defeated the Chicago Cubs, four games to two.

Not only was 1935 a great year for the Tigers, but it was also a great one for the entire city of Detroit, known that year as the "City of Champions." The Detroit Lions won the National Football League championship and the National Hockey League's Detroit Red Wings won the Stanley Cup. Detroit also had a minor league hockey team, called the Olympics, win its league championship.

Trammell and Whitaker Set AL Record

Former Tigers Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker, who played together from 1977-95, established an American League record in 1995 with 1,918 appearances as teammates. Trammell and Whitaker, who played shortstop and second base, respectively, broke the old AL mark of 1,914 held by Kansas City third baseman George Brett and second baseman Frank White. The major league mark for appearances by two players as teammates is 2,015, held by third baseman Ron Santo and outfielder Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs, who played together from 1960-73.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

Larry Parrish

Toledo Manager

After serving as a major league scout for the Tigers from 2000-02, Larry Parrish returns to the dugout as the manager at Triple A Toledo in 2003.

Served as Detroit's interim skipper in September of 1998, before being hired as the club's manager for the 1999 season. Originally joined the Tigers major league coaching staff as Buddy Bell's bench coach in 1997 and for the first five months of the 1998 season.

Parrish spent the first half of the 1994 and 1996 seasons, as well as all of 1995 as the Tigers minor league roving hitting instructor, only interrupted by stints as the manager at Toledo and Double A Jacksonville during the second half of the 1994 and 1996 seasons, respectively. Parrish led Jacksonville to a division title during the second half of the 1996 season, and ultimately the Southern League championship.

He joined the Tigers organization as the manager at Single A Niagara Falls in both the 1992 and 1993 seasons, leading the Rapids to the New York-Penn League championship in 1993 after earning a berth in the post-season as the league's wild card winner.

A two-time all-star during his major league career, Parrish batted .263 with 256 home runs during a 15-year career where he saw action with Montreal, Texas and Boston.

Kevin Bradshaw

Erie Manager

Kevin Bradshaw returns as the manager at Double A Erie in 2003, his second season with the SeaWolves and his 10th year as a manager in the Tigers system.

Named the 2000 Dwight Lowry Award winner as the Tigers Player Development Man of the Year, Bradshaw led the 2000 Gulf Coast League Tigers to a second place in the Eastern Division with a record of 34-26. In 1999, he led Single A Oneonta to within a single game of the New York-Penn League playoffs in its first year as a Detroit affiliate.

Bradshaw has spent his entire baseball career with the Detroit organization, managing for nine seasons, coaching for five seasons and playing four years as a Tigers farmhand. He began his coaching career in 1990 with the Double A London squad when the team went on to win the Eastern League title. During the next four seasons Bradshaw coached four different teams; Bristol in 1991, Toledo in 1992, Lakeland in 1993 and Trenton in 1994.

As a player, Bradshaw worked his way up to the Triple A level before a torn achilles tendon prompted him to retire. Prior to his retirement, he played four seasons in the minor leagues, compiling a .241 lifetime average.

The combined .509 winning percentage was 13th-best among all of the 30 major league organizations in 2002. Detroit's minor league affiliates have combined to post a winning percentage above .500 in four of the past six seasons, including both the 2001 and 2002 seasons. The Tigers are one of just nine organizations to post a winning percentage above .500 in each of the last two seasons.

Detroit's four minor league affiliates reaching the post-season matched Cleveland, the Chicago Cubs, Houston and Pittsburgh for the most by an organization.
- The 2002 season marked the first time since 1962 the Tigers organization placed four of its minor league affiliates in their respective league's playoffs. In 1962, Denver of the American Association, Knoxville of the South Atlantic League, Duluth-Superior of the Northern League and Jamestown of the New York-Penn League all advanced to the post-season. Thomasville of the Georgia-Florida League posted its league's best record, but the Georgia-Florida League did not hold playoffs.

Tigers First to Hold Spring Training in Arizona

In 1929, the Detroit Tigers became the first major league team ever to host Spring Training in the state of Arizona. Detroit spent just one spring in Phoenix before moving the team's spring training site to Tampa, FL in 1930. The Tigers alternated sites over the next three seasons, training in both California and Texas, but the club returned to Florida in 1934 and set up camp in Lakeland. With the exception of 1943-45, when World War II forced the club to train in Evansville, IN in the nation's heartland, the Tigers have held Spring Training in Lakeland every year since.

TOLEDO MUD HENS (AAA)

THE SEASON: Toledo opened a new era for Mud Hens baseball with a new downtown ballpark, Fifth Third Field, and captured the International League's West Division crown with an 81-63 record (.563), advancing to the post-season for the first time since 1984. The Mud Hens became the Tigers first Triple A affiliate since Evansville in 1979 to win its division. Toledo ran into Durham, the eventual champion of the International League, in the opening round and the club was swept in three games. The Mud Hens welcomed 547,204 fans into Fifth Third Field in 2002, establishing a franchise record for attendance. Righthander Oscar Henriquez was originally selected to represent the Mud Hens at the Triple A All-Star Game, but a promotion to Detroit called for him to be replaced by infielder Jarrod Patterson. Both shortstop Omar Infante and outfielder Andres Torres were selected to participate in the Futures Game held at Miller Park in Milwaukee prior to the Major League All-Star Game. Additionally, righthander Franklyn German took part in the Futures Game after being acquired by the Tigers in the three-team, seven-player deal on July 6 before he joined the Mud Hens.

THE BATS: The Mud Hens finished fourth in the International League with a .270 batting average, while the club topped the 14-team league with 489 walks. Additionally, Toledo was third in the league with a .421 slugging percentage and fourth with a .339 on-base percentage. First baseman Eric Munson led the Mud Hens with both his 24 home runs and 84 RBI, tying for fourth in the International League in both categories. Additionally, he topped the league in walks (77), was second in extra-base hits (58) and tied for fifth in total bases (235). Munson earned Tigers Minor League Player of the Month honors after hitting .418 (33x79) with 18 runs, eight doubles, six home runs and 22 RBI during July. In seven games July 22-28, he batted .480 (12x25) with three home runs and 13 RBI to garner the IL Player of the Week award. Outfielder Craig Monroe finished fourth in the league with a .321 batting average and .511 slugging percentage. Monroe matched a franchise record with five hits on August 25 versus Columbus. Torres and Patterson each collected a five-hit game for the Mud Hens. Torres, who tied for the league lead with 42 stolen bases, recorded five hits July 26 versus Columbus, while Patterson pulled off the feat against Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on June 27. Torres was fourth in the league with 80 runs scored and he tied for fourth, along with Infante, with eight triples.

THE ARMS: Toledo's staff was fifth in the International League with a 3.63 ERA, while leading the league with 11 complete games and tying for the top spot with 13 shutouts. Righthander Shane Loux led the Mud Hens staff throughout the season, leading the club in wins (11), games started (26), complete games (5), shutouts (3), innings pitched (158.1) and strikeouts (87). Loux led the league in both complete games and shutouts, firing all three of his shutouts over a four-start stretch June 23-July 12. He captured the IL Pitcher of the Week award three times during the season, June 24-30, July 8-14 and July 29-August 4, becoming the league's first pitcher to do so since Syracuse's Nerio Rodriguez won the award three times in 1999. Righthander Adam Bernero posted a 0.53 ERA (17.0IP/1ER) and 16 strikeouts in two starts, earning one win as he was named the IL Pitcher of the Week for May 6-12. At the time of his promotion to Detroit, Bernero was second in the league with a 1.58 ERA. Lefthander Andy Van Hekken joined Toledo's rotation in late-July following his promotion from Erie and he won IL Pitcher of the Week honors for August 5-11, firing a four-hit shutout August 7 at Durham. Henriquez finished with 17 saves, fifth-most in the league, in 33 appearances with Toledo before having his contract purchased by the Tigers on June 29. German assumed Toledo's closer role after joining the club on July 11, recording 13 saves in 23 outings. After allowing three runs in his Mud Hens debut on July 11, German held International League opposition scoreless in 18 straight appearances July 14-August 23, a stretch of 17 innings. Lefthander Mike Maroth anchored Toledo's staff during the first two months of the season, departing the Mud Hens staff to join the Tigers starting rotation on June 7 tied for the league lead with eight wins.

ERIE SEAWOLVES (AA)

THE SEASON: Erie finished in sixth place of the Southern Division in the Eastern League with a 52-89 record (.369). Outfielder Cody Ross was selected to both the mid- and post-season all-star squads, but a broken toe on his right foot forced him to miss the mid-season all-star game. Infielder Jorge Sequea replaced Ross at the Double A All-Star Game, earning Most Valuable Player honors after belting a three-run home run during the seventh inning of the American League's 11-2 win over the National League.

THE BATS: First baseman Charley Carter led the SeaWolves offensive attack for much of the season, topping the club in hits (138), total bases (235), doubles (32), home runs (21) and RBI (92). Carter was third in the Eastern League in RBI and tied for fourth in both home runs and extra-base hits (54). Ross paced all SeaWolves with 380-or-more plate appearances with a .508 slugging percentage, while he was second on the team with 112 hits, 73 runs scored, 28 doubles and 72 RBI. Ross earned both Tigers Minor League Player of the Month and TOPPS Eastern League Player of the Month honors during June after batting .336 (37x110) with 29 runs, 10 doubles, two triples, eight home runs, 30 RBI and 10 stolen bases. Outfielder Kurt Airoso led all Erie players with 380-or-more plate appearances with a .385 on-base percentage, as well as leading the team with 76 runs scored. Airoso earned Eastern League Player of the Week honors for August 19-25 after batting .333 (8x24) with seven runs, four home runs and six RBI. Infielder Johnny Perez finished ninth in the Eastern League with a .306 batting average, hitting .317 (95x300) after June 1 to raise his season batting average from .233. Designated hitter Derek Nicholson hit .467 (7x15) with seven runs, three doubles, a triple, two home runs and seven RBI in five games during the week of April 15-21 to win Eastern League Player of the Week honors. Outfielder Corey Richardson swiped 30 bases to lead the SeaWolves and he topped the league with an 85.7 percent stolen base success rate.

THE ARMS: Erie's pitching staff struggled throughout the season, finishing last in the Eastern League with a 5.29 ERA and 773 strikeouts. Left-hander Andy Van Hekken did prove to be a bright spot, finishing 10th in the league with a 3.83 ERA and leading the team with 97 strikeouts. Right-hander Nate Tekavec topped the SeaWolves in games started (27) and innings pitched (141.0), while tying for the lead along with right-hander Tom Farmer and right-hander Jeremy Johnson in wins with six apiece. Johnson won six of his seven decisions for the SeaWolves after joining the club on July 27, including a 5-0 mark with a 3.35 ERA (37.2IP/14ER) in six starts during August. Right-hander Fernando Rodney posted a team-high 11 saves, while left-hander Homero Rivera was second on the staff with eight saves. Rivera recorded 17.2 scoreless innings over a 12-appearance stretch April 10-May 18, fanning 14 batters and allowing just six hits. Right-hander Kenny Baugh missed the entire season while on the SeaWolves disabled list and was forced to undergo surgery to repair a torn labrum in his right shoulder, a procedure performed by Dr. John Conway in Ft. Worth, TX on June 12.

LAKELAND TIGERS (A)

THE SEASON: Lakeland finished the season with a 69-70 record (.496), including a 40-32 record (.556) in the first-half of the season to win the Florida State League's East Division. The Tigers swept Jupiter in two games during the opening round of the league's playoffs to advance to the finals against Charlotte. Lakeland fell short against Charlotte, losing the best-of-five game series three games-to-two. Manager Gary Green skipped the East Division team during the Florida State League All-Star Game with his coaches Joe Boever and Basilio Cabrera and trainer Patrick Serbus. Four Tigers were selected to play in the mid-season all-star game: righthander Calvin Chipperfield, lefthander Tommy Marx, catcher Maxim St. Pierre and third baseman Jack Hannahan. Righthander Preston Larrison and first baseman Leo Daigle were named to the league's post-season all-star squad.

THE BATS: The Tigers were second among all teams in the Florida State League with 175 stolen bases and fourth with 97 home runs. Daigle led the Tigers offense all season, topping the club in total bases (212), home runs (23) and RBI (85) and tying for the club lead with 75 runs scored. Daigle led the league in home runs, finished second with one home run every 20.26 at-bats, tied for third in RBI and he was fifth in total bases. Over a 13-game hitting streak June 21-July 3, Daigle batted .383 (18x47) with 10 runs, two doubles and four home runs. He won Florida State League Player of the Week honors July 15-21, batting .364 (8x22) with a double, four home runs and 12 RBI. Outfielder Nook Logan led all players in the Florida State League with 55 stolen bases and a 77.5 percent stolen base success rate, in addition to leading the Tigers with 136 hits and tying for the lead with 75 runs and seven triples. Outfielder Juan Camilo managed to top the Tigers with 24 doubles despite appearing in only 81 games with Lakeland. Camilo was second in the league with a 75.8 percent stolen base success rate. Shortstop Anderson Hernandez tied for the team lead with seven triples. Hannahan hit .272 with six home runs and 42 RBI in 66 games for Lakeland before being promoted to Erie after the Florida State League All-Star Game. He was named the Florida State League Player of the Week for May 27-June 2, hitting .579 (11x19) with two doubles, a home run and nine RBI. Two Tigers battled injuries for most of the 2002 season, second baseman Michael Woods and outfielder Neil Jenkins. Woods injured his right knee in Lakeland's first game of the season and he missed three months after undergoing surgery, in addition to having his season end prematurely on August 7 with a left knee injury. Jenkins did not play after June 4 due to a right shoulder strain. Second baseman David Espinosa, one of the three prospects acquired from Cincinnati for Brian Moehler on July 23, was assigned to Lakeland by Detroit, but he was unable to play due to a back injury.

THE ARMS: Larrison served as the ace of Lakeland's staff, topping the club with 10 wins and a 2.39 ERA. He finished second in the Florida State League in ERA and he tied for second with three complete games. Larrison held the opposition to a .199 batting average and 10.07 baserunners per nine innings during his starts, best among all league starters. In two starts the week of June 24-30, Larrison was 1-0 with a 0.64 ERA (14.0IP/1ER) and 12 strikeouts to earn Florida State Pitcher of the Week honors. Chipperfield led the staff with 126.0 innings pitched and 114 strikeouts, as well as tying for second in the league along with Larrison with three complete games. Chipperfield's 3.29 ERA was tied for ninth-best in the Florida State League, while his .221 batting average against and 7.94 strikeouts per nine innings during starts were fifth-best among all league starters. Marx garnered the Florida State League Pitcher of the Week award for April 22-28 after a four-hit shutout April 26 versus Daytona. Righthander Lee Rodney earned Florida State League Pitcher of the Week honors for August 12-18, finishing 2-0 with a 0.75 ERA (12.0IP/1ER) in two starts. Righthander Jeremy Bonderman, the player to be named later from Oakland in the deal which sent Jeff Weaver to the A's on July 6, was assigned to Lakeland after being acquired by the Tigers organization on August 22. Bonderman made two regular season starts with the Tigers, suffering a loss in his only decision.

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2003 for their 67th season in Lakeland and their 38th at the newly remodeled Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In January 2001, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 16 additional years.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100 and the recently completed renovation project upped the capacity to 9,000. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972 and a food and picnic court that was added in 1994 to increase the fan appeal of Joker Marchant Stadium. The recent $11 million renovation project has transformed the park into a state of the art facility that will feature luxury suites, a second tier concourse level, new seating areas, an outfield seating berm, as well as brand new individual seats with cupholders and improved seating for handicapped fans. The improvements continued to the exterior of the park with the extensive use of Mediterranean style architecture. The press box has been improved and expanded, a new practice field has been added, as well as four new indoor batting cages.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the Tigertown renovation.

Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and city of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Marchant Stadium is 287-232-8 and 2,249,609 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.
